Hop On Jump On for Easter Weekend getaway to Vancouver

Calgary, Alberta (February 26, 2016) – Just in time for Easter, Jump On Flyaways has pulled another rabbit out of its travel hat with an incredibly low cost weekend getaway flight for Albertans – Calgary to Vancouver March 24-27.

“The downturn in the Alberta economy has created new opportunities for Jump On to save Albertans over 50% off typical long weekend fares, while providing a unique and memorable travel experience,” explains Roger Jewett, CEO Jump On Flyaways.

Adds Jewett, “While we consistently offer 35%-65% off typical airline fares, our savings are even greater during busy travel times like Easter weekend, when scheduled airlines take the opportunity to gouge travellers looking to visit friends and family.”

About Jump On!!

Jump On Flyaways is a sharing community of like-minded travellers seeking low airfares and an improved travel experience. In 2013, Jump On created an airplane sharing service using idle aircraft and its Jumping Point concept to offer Jumpers a unique experience while saving 35%-65% off typical airline fares.

Jump On recently launched JumpStart, where Jumpers can go online to create and crowdsource their own flights to sporting events, weddings, concerts and getaway destinations.

Jump On is the brainchild of Roger Jewett, a Calgary entrepreneur and Chartered Accountant with a successful business track record as CEO of RareMethod and Twist Marketing and CFO of Enerjet and Resorts of the Canadian Rockies.
