Jump On's Calgary-Vancouver Easter Weekend getaway is a GO!

Scheduled airline fares for similar flights are now over $1,000!

Calgary, Alberta (March 14, 2016) – “We’ve called our Mar 24-27 Calgary- Vancouver flight a Go!,” says Roger Jewett, CEO, Jump On Flyaways.

“It’s no surprise our flight filled up,” adds Jewett. “The cheapest peak time Easter weekend Calgary-Vancouver (return) scheduled airline fare is now over $1,000 per seat. That’s just crazy and is more than triple our everyday low price!” (Click here for flight details)

“We don’t gouge consumers looking to visit family and friends over busy holiday weekends like the big airlines do. Customers always receive a low price from Jump On.”

About Jump On!!

Jump On Flyaways is a sharing community of like-minded travellers seeking low airfares and an improved travel experience. In 2013, Jump On created an airplane sharing service using idle aircraft and its Jumping Point concept to offer Jumpers a unique experience while saving 35%-65% off typical airline fares.

Jump On recently launched JumpStart, where Jumpers can go online to create and crowdsource their own flights to sporting events, weddings, concerts and getaway destinations.

Jump On is the brainchild of Roger Jewett, a Calgary entrepreneur and Chartered Account with a successful business track record as CEO of RareMethod and Twist Marketing and CFO of Enerjet and Resorts of the Canadian Rockies.
